Ahead of the Christmas travel season, Ryanair announced that they will continue their partnership with the Erasmus Student Network (ESN) for an eighth year, further helping European students to travel at the lowest fares during their educational exchange.

Through this partnership, Erasmus students can avail of a dedicated ESN booking platform on the Ryanair.com website, where they will be provided with a 10% discount on four one-way flights (or 2 round-trips) and a free 20kg checked-in bag with every flight booked.

Since 2017, ESN students have benefited from this exclusive partnership which has seen over 800,000 bookings to date.

ESN students can now book their low fare Ryanair flights across the airlines industry-leading network of 235+ destinations with these exclusive ESN travel discounts through the dedicated platform at Ryanair.com.

Ryanair's Head of Comms Jade Kirwan, said: "Ryanair is pleased to announce our exclusive partnership with ESN for the 8th year running, promoting student mobility by offering third level students across Europe a range of exclusive flight offers, including generous discounts and free baggage options. As Ryanair continues to grow and invest in Europe, we are delighted to support the EU flagship Erasmus programme and the incredible opportunities offered to their student members."
