Cyprus Airways announces the launch of ticket sales for summer 2019 from Larnaca to destinations in Europe and Middle East.

Flights to Athens, Thessaloniki, Prague, Bratislava, Kosice, Tel Aviv and Beirut are available for booking as of 21st November 2018. The company will soon announce ticket sales for flights to other attractive destinations.

“We continually monitor our route network and we believe that these destinations will be a popular choice for local travellers, while at the same time contribute in the increase of tourists visiting Cyprus” stated Natalia Popova, Chief Commercial Officer of Cyprus Airways.

Passengers can book their flights through cyprusairways.com, Cyprus Airways Call Center (National toll free 8000 8111 or international on +357 24000053) or through their travel agent.

Cyprus Airways offers two categories of fares, Basic and Flex. The Flex offers additional services, such as 23kg baggage allowance, seat selection etc, giving customers the option to customize their travel experience.

The company announced a new baggage policy which will affect customers who select basic fares, effective from 31 March 2019.

Under the new improved baggage policy, the basic fare ticket holders will be allowed to check-in their 10kg wheel bag in order to have a more comfortable journey without having to carry their bag on the aircraft.

All passengers are allowed a small carry-on bag (hand-bag or laptop or back bag) which they can place under the seat in front of them. This new baggage policy will benefit all Cyprus Airways passengers, as it will reduce boarding delays.
